

- occupied by the French, 285;
exactions in, 286; hostages required, 287;
banishment of the inhabitants of, 317; seizure of the funds of, 318.
- Eanft, M., raises volunteers, iii. 282.
- Hanover, invaded by the French, ii. 194.
- Hanse Towns, state of, iii. 28; pacific spirit of the inhabitants of, 41; united to the French Empire, 214; disastrous effect of union, 248.
- Hardenberg, M. Von, interview with La Sahla, iii. 223.
- Barrel, M., divulges a conspiracy, ii. 20; appointed commandant of Vincennes, 22; his account of the Due d'Eughien's death, 231.
- Hatzfeld, Prince, his letter to the King of Prussia, iii. 47; arrested, ib.; accused of espionage, 49, n.; Napoleon's generosity to, ib.; his gratitude, ib.
- -, Madame, intercedes for her husband, iii. 48, 49, n.
- Haugwitz, M., his letter to Baron Grote, iii. 41.
- Hautefeuille, Bailly d', a French emigrant in Altona, iii. 52.
- Hawkesbury, Lord, negotiates the preliminaries of peace, i. 351; remark of, ii. 61; consents to evacuate Malta, 65.
- Btemart, President, a regicide, ii. 280, n.
- Hervas d'Alme"nara, Mademoiselle, her marriage, ii. 73, n.
- Hill, Lieutenant-General Lord, army commanded by, iv. 125.
- Hilliers, General Baraguay d', enters Venice, i. 64; his brave conduct, 126.
- History of the Consulate*, dictated by Napoleon, iv. 314.
- Hoche, General, death of, i. 104.
- Hogendorff, General, appointed Governor of Hamburg, iii. 285; departs from that city, iv. 17.
- Hohenlinden, battle of, ii. 38.
- Hohenlohe, Prince, forced to capitulate at Prentzlau, iii. 45.
- Holland, King of, see Louis Bonaparte.
- Holstein-Augustenburg, Duke of, arrives at Hamburg, iii. 207.
- , Duchess of, takes refuge in Altona, iii. 53.
- Ho ran, M., his conversation with Napoleon, iv. 71.
- "Horatius Coclfes," representation of, i. 111.
- Hortense Beauharnais, Queen of Holland, her affection for Duroc, i. 108, n.; inter-
- History of Napoleon Bonaparte, from his birth to his last abdication*, an anonymous publication, i. 4.

cedes with Jerome
 Bonaparte for (Bonaparte), her mother, 226, King of n.; hurt by the Westphalia, explosion of the extravagance of,
 infernal ii. 84; created machine, ii. 24, King of n.; her marriage, Westphalia, iii.
 70; re-marks on 29; his
 her affection for "correspondence, Duroc, 71; her 174; raises a taste for loan in Hamburg,
 theatricals, 107; ib.; revenue of,
 persuades M. 362; compels the Bourrienne to Duke of Brun-remain with swick to evacuate
 Napoleon, 131; Leipsic, iv. 153,
 her conduct n.; his attack
 during the Cent upon Jours, iv. 246. Hougomont, 167; Hotbam, Sir H., his career, 251 et
 introduced to seq.
 Napoleon, iv. John, Archduke,
 215. defeats Eugene
 Hoz, General, Beauharnais, iii.
 protects the 164, n.
 Venetian revolu- Joinville, Prince
 tion, i. 52. de, put in charge
 Hozier, Charles of the expedition
 d', arrested, ii. which brought 258; trial of, Napoleon's
 273; sentenced relics to France,
 to death, 286; iv. 369.
 pardoned, 287. Jomini, General, Hue, M., false on General
 reports Mack, i. 318, n.;
 respecting, iii. defection of, iii.
 114; in-troduces 291; harsh
 M. Bourrienne treatment of, by to Louis XVIII., Berthier, 291, n.
 iv. 36; informs him of his appointment,
 75.
 Hulot, Madame,
 remark of, ii.
 39; her visit to Malmaison, ib.
 Humboldt, Count,
 Prussian
 representative
 at the Congress
 of Chatillon, iii.
 328.
 Imperial Guard,
fete given by, iv.
 139-140;
 extinction of, 284.
 Institute,
 institution so
 called, i. 112.
 Isle of France,
 iii. 25. Istria,
 Duke of, see
 Besaieres.
 Italy, Viceroy
 of, see Beauharnais.
 Jackson, Mr., sent
 to negotiate
 with Denmark,
 iii. 91.
 Jaffa, siege of, i.
 176; taken by
 the French, ib.
 James, M., loans
 raised in Genoa
 through the medium of, i.
 166.
 Jaubert, his
 mission to Persia,
 ii. 339.
 Jaucourt, Comte
 Francois de,
 member of the Provisional Government, iii.
 361; proscribed
 by Napoleon, iv.
 75; Minister of Marine, 230.